“Leaving Behind Fear and Worry”

²⁵ “Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? ²⁶Look at the birds of the air; they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? ²⁷And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life? ²⁸And why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin, ²⁹yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these. ³⁰But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you—you of little faith? ³¹Therefore do not worry, saying, “What will we eat?” or “What will we drink?” or “What will we wear?” ³²For it is the Gentiles who strive for all these things; and indeed your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. ³³But strive first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

³⁴ ‘So do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will bring worries of its own. Today’s trouble is enough for today.

Matthew 6:25-34

Anxiousness and fear are increasingly dominating our society and culture, leading people to seek security in methods that lead to more isolation and fear. Dividing ourselves off and keeping people out seems like a way to prevent being hurt. But, during loneliness and separation we find ourselves more worried and afraid. We seek to create security through wealth but then fear losing that wealth. We seek to find comfort and strength in people who can protect us, but far too often our protectors become those who dominate and take over. The short form is that the confidence and peace, that comes from outside of ourselves, may also become the source of greater fear and uncertainty. Real confidence can only come from knowing that God abides with an expectation of steadfast care and sustaining grace.

In the passage from the Sermon on the Mount Jesus is being more practical than we often perceive, if we open our minds to the message. Jesus is saying that the universe is not out to get us; quite the opposite – the default setting of life is for sustenance and wholeness. God has placed a blessing over all things that is greater than the forces that corrupt and harm. Our expectation can be of dread and of disaster, however, that will lead to a constant perception of threats and disasters lurking just outside our control. Or, we can see through eyes of faith which cause us to know that problems exist to be solved. God is still in control. Our job is not to control everything in order to be safe, but to know confidence through the Kingdom of God and God’s unending care.

Part of what makes this challenging is the increasing use of fear, in our society, to motivate others and influence society. Whether it is the news of random acts of terrorists or pharmaceutical ads that suggest you are in desperate need of medication to prevent your demise, or politicians that tell you that their opponent is out to destroy you, threats are in abundance. The answer is neither to detach from the world or to try and find a source of power that will make us secure. The answer is to dwell in the knowledge of God who will sustain us. We will find peace in the knowledge of God and Christ’s love.

This is the goal of our upcoming Lenten season: to walk a path that leads us away from fear into a place of strength, through confidence in Christ’s love and God’s care. We will use our time of Lenten disciplines, studies, and conversations on this journey. We begin with Ash Wednesday February 26th at 6:30 and go into April when we celebrate what it means to live as resurrection Christians. Join us for this time of healing and renewal.

Peace,
Pastor Jack

Coming Up in Worship

Sermon: What Does God Want from Us?

Theme: God calls us to a relationship of wholeness and humility through following Christ's teachings and direction for our lives.

Purpose: The congregation will seek to practice humility and kindness.

Scriptures: Micah 6:1-8 God has shown you, do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with your God.

Matthew 5:1-12 The Beatitudes.

Questions:

What kind of person does God want us to become? How are The Beatitudes a reflection of what it means to be spiritually mature? What does it mean to hunger and thirst after righteousness? What is the real meaning of humility and how is it a part of a healthy Christian life? How does a life lived focused on ones own needs less a life than a life that is in joyful relationship with the world around us? How do we come to be people who live the beatitudes naturally?

2/9/2020 Rev. Mary Council-Austin will be preaching.

What is Per Capita?

PerCapita Payment

Each year we make a payment to the Presbyterian denomination, via the Presbytery. It is an expense, per member of the church, that is known as PerCapita (per head). The PerCapita amount this year, is again $37.00/person.

This money is divided as follows:

- 18% is used to support the work of the General Assembly administering disaster relief funds, supporting Leisa Wagstaff, an aid worker in South Sudan, whom we have been coming to know a wide range of other programs
- 12% is used to supports the Synod funds Synod School other programs to maintain missions throughout the region
- 70% supports the Presbytery used to support a range of ministries and missions staff to assist the churches

Some members choose to provide an extra gift at the beginning of the calendar year to off-set their own PerCapita payment, which is greatly appreciated. That additional gift of $37.00 per member, in the household, allows us to pay our donation to the denomination while dedicating our other gifts to our missions and work of being Christians – Serving, Learning and Loving.

Thank You - Warming Shelter Dinner Participants

A very big thank you to everyone who helped make the dinner, at the Salvation Army Warming Shelter, a very big success!

There were many church members involved in planning, promoting (2), purchasing and cooking food (14), serving and cleaning up (7), at the shelter.

There was plenty of good food. Leftover fruit and chicken was packaged for the guests to take with them, in the morning. There were many thanks and compliments from the guests, too. Some said it was the best dinner they had enjoyed all year! We fed approximately 45 people!

It is so wonderful to be part of a church that lovingly cares for each other and for others less fortunate, in our community.

Great job, great mission, very Christian indeed!

Bible Study - The Gospel According to John

Wednesdays 10:30am- 12:00pm

We are continuing our series focusing on the Gospel According to John. We are moving to part 2 of N.T. Wrights "John for Everyone."

John's Gospel is powerful in opening our hearts to seeing Jesus differently. Through the message of "The Word Becomes Flesh" John's Gospel opens us to examining conflicts, within ourselves and the world, as a process of transformation as the Word of God reaches our lives.

The temple becomes a symbol of our own spiritual life and thinking. And, various discussions open new possibilities of discipleship and faithfulness.

Our time is spent in prayer, support for one another, conversation and sharing. Join us.

Share Your Events!

The Loving Team would like to share your events! First Presbyterian Church would like to support our church family, both children and adults, in your activities outside of church. For example:

- Concerts
- Plays
- Sporting Events, etc.

This would enable interested members of the congregation to attend these activities. Please give the dates, times and the name of your event, to the church office and your activity will be announced during our church services.

Embracing the Uncertain: A Lenten Study for Unsteady Times

By Magrey Devega

Paperback $11.00

Just turning on the news lets us know we are living in uncertain times. Economic instabilities, eruptions of violence, and natural catastrophes can alter the lives and landscapes of entire communities. Our individual lives are often just as unsteady: relationships can break, plans can falter, and confidence can fail.

Uncertainty can definitely be uncomfortable. Many of us prefer stability and a predictable future to an unknown fate. We are wired to want to control our destiny.

The reality is that in our fast-changing, unpredictable world there are few guarantees in life. It's those who are willing to embrace uncertainty and make the risky decision to follow Jesus despite the many "unknowns" who will reap the greatest rewards.

During Lent we will engage and wrestle with life's uncertainties, not ignore them. The first six chapters focus on six post-Transfiguration, pre-Passion stories in the Gospels. Each of these stories are signposts in the gospel narrative, pointing down at a world filled with uncertainty, but pointing us forward to a cross that can show us how to follow Jesus with courage, hope and obedience.

March 22 - "Journey of Hope: Ministry with the South Sudanese"

It is official! Leisa Wagstaff will be in Fond du Lac on March 21 and 22. Please save the date for a community event tentatively planned for Saturday morning. First Presbyterian is hosting Leisa for worship and education hour on Sunday, March 22.

Join us in listening, learning and becoming inspired by the Journey of Hope found in Leisa's global mission work. She says, "I serve as your representative, your mission co-worker, and the embodiment of your desire to share the good news of Jesus Christ in every corner of the earth."

After nearly 30 years as a mission co-worker, Leisa helps the Presbyterian Church of South Sudan (PCOSS) strengthen its educational ministry by facilitating the repair and construction of primary schools, developing in-service teacher training programs, and nurturing community participation in education. Statistics show that 70% of children between the ages of six and seventeen have never set foot inside a classroom, only 25% of the school age population is enrolled in school, and almost 90% of teachers are untrained.

Leisa invites everyone to share in this ministry alongside her and our global partners.

Leisa's prayer verse:

"... Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine. When you pass through the waters, I will be with you. . ."

SERVING LEARNING LOVING

Growing Connections 9:15am in the Parlor

Growing Connections is our ministry of learning opportunities for adults. We seek to grow in relationship, wisdom, and understanding – all of the connections that enable us to know Christ more fully and discover our mission in the world. Growing Connections opportunities will focus on learning about our relationships and how we grow in faith, as well as, mission opportunities.

We are “Christians, Serving, Learning and Loving.” This is an opportunity to grow in faith as we learn more about ourselves, how Christ is reaching out to the world, and how we may use our gifts as the Body of Christ.

2 What is a Presbytery? Have you heard the word “Presbytery” used and wondered what it means? This is your chance to ask questions and find out more about how we work together in the life of our presbytery.

9 Love Languages People tend to give love the way they naturally prefer to receive love. Knowing your love language, you can better express your needs to the people around you while also understanding how to make them feel loved in return. This not only helps in romantic relationships, but also improves the way we interact with anyone, whether it is at the office, with our family, or when meeting new friends. By understanding how we give and receive love, we can show people we care and make them feel loved and appreciated.

16 Feed My Starving Children Feed My Starving Children (FMSC) is a Christian nonprofit organization dedicated to providing nutritious meals to children worldwide. FMSC meals are hand-packed by volunteers and sent to an incredible network of partner organizations who distribute them to those in need. More than 91 percent of total donations go directly to feed kids. For the past seven years the Fond du Lac area has hosted a local mobilepack to support this awesome mission. This year’s Fond du Lac MobilePack goal is to pack 171,072 meals with 855 volunteers. Over a dozen churches will again join together to help raise the $41,057 needed to have this event in our community. Come and find out more about the Fond du Lac MobilePack and find out how you can join us in “being the Church” as we love others in Jesus’ name and partner with Feed My Starving Children to turn “Hunger into Hope”.

23 Session Forum Monthly a time will be set aside to review recent action by the church session, discuss the work of the church, and share vision for where Christ is taking First Presbyterian Church in the future. The forum will be hosted by the Elder of the Month. These forums are an opportunity to seek to gather as “Christians, Serving, Learning and Loving.”

Talkback - Sunday Mornings at 9:15am (Resource Room)

Talkback is a discussion of the scripture passages and themes for that particular Sunday’s worship. Discussion facilitators help to create an atmosphere where participants can explore their thoughts and feelings about the issues and topics presented by the scriptures of the day. The class is open to anyone who wants to enjoy an open and caring environment for exploring their faith.
